In a short time, ROMANS has established itself as one of the premier bands in contemporary Catholic music, having played for crowds of 10,000, as well as numerous intimate gatherings. Their first studio project "Come to Life" and newest release "High Fidelity" has produced strong support and rave reviews from all ages. Probably the most inspiring and frequently heard comment is the ability of ROMANS to be "common grounds for uniting families' musical differences."

ROMANS goal is to inspire all Catholics to a deeper love for and commitment to their Faith and to help them take their Faith out to the world with zeal. The members of ROMANS humbly acknowledge the many gifts that God has given them as well as their many shortcomings and they seek to glorify God by proving once again that God can make use of ordinary men to do extraordinary things.
